~~the [illegible]~~, Government are pleased to direct that in future all indents for stores required by Government departments, the value of which exceeds Rs.1000 fixed in paragraph 9 of the G.O. of 22nd October 1923 read above, should, after the usual departmental sanction is obtained, be sent to the Secretary to the Stores Purchase Committee instead of to the Chief Secretary to Government. All enquiries relating to the purchase of stores or to points on which the firm's opinion or advice is required by any department should also be addressed to the Secretary of the Stores Purchase Committee. In sending indents care should be taken to see that the [illegible] as clearly as possible and also that [illegible] are included.

Detailed rules regarding the manner and time of preparation and transmission of the annual indents to the Stores Purchase Committee will be issued in due course.

In order to avoid delay in the receipt of the necessary stores for the purpose should be limited to the quantities supplied by the Secy to the Govt of India. Indents received from the head of Depts of the Subordinate offices should be forwarded from time to time as received.
